Rector's Welcome

By giving thanks to our merciful God, I would like to greet our new students by saying "Welcome to UPH campus". We are very happy that you have selected UPH to continue your study. The whole family of UPH will do our best to support the success of your studies. UPH has designed a holistic education of international standard, supported by modern facilities in the hopes of an enjoyable campus life and a transformative process through holistic education.

The vision of UPH - True Knowledge, Faith in Christ and Godly Character - will hopefully be your vision as well, so that all your learning activities will eventually embody your ambitions.

We expect the best possible cooperation with all the components to support the teaching and learning process to achieve quality by international rankings.

Various conditions and rules have been established to support a harmonious and comfortable campus life to achieve your educational goals at UPH. I expect all students to participate in maintaining order, cleanliness, and civility on our beloved UPH campus.

I wish your study well, and God bless.

Dr. (Hon.) Jonathan L. Parapak, M.Eng.Sc.
Rector of Universitas Pelita Harapan

Purpose of this Handbook

This Handbook provides you with information on certain important aspects of University life – the sources of available help, support services and key regulations applicable to all students. While the information provided in this Handbook was correct at the time of publication, the University reserves the right to alter procedures, fees and regulations should the need arise. You should carefully read all official correspondence, other sources of information for students and the official University notice boards to be aware of changes to the information in this Handbook.

Apart from this Handbook, you may receive other materials at the start of your studies produced by your School, setting out all the essential information pertaining to your program of study and the academic requirements.

Introduction

Vision

UPH is a Christ-centered university founded upon and promoting true knowledge, faith in Christ and godly character aiming to develop God-fearing, competent and professional future leaders through excellent, holistic and transformational education.

Mission

- To provide holistic transformational learning rooted in Scripture and a Reformed theological framework
- To contribute to the advancement of knowledge and culture guided by a biblical Christian worldview
- To participate redemptively in the development of individuals and society for the glory of God

*Statement of Faith

As a confessionally Christian educational institution, UPH is committed to the Reformed confessions and the tradition and practice of historic biblical Christianity. It, therefore, adheres to the doctrines of faith as stated in the YPPH/YUPH Statement of Faith, and the Standards of Conducts that follow.

Prevention & Intervention of Sexual Harassment

The regulations of Prevention and Intervention of Sexual Harassment are managed in Permendikbudristek 30/2021 and Persesjen Kemendikbudristek 17/2022. The ministerial regulations aimed as a guide for universities to construct regulation and take action on sexual harassment issues, also to embrace an inclusive, equivalent, collaborative, and harassment-free campus environment. Universitas Pelita Harapan has formed Task Force Team for Prevention and Intervention of Sexual Harassment, to ensure the implementation of ministerial regulations and university regulations regarding Sexual Harassment. For any reporting necessity or any assistance needed, the task force team are available to be contacted through email at satgas.ppks@uph.edu.

Disciplinary Action

These are UPH's sanction/s for misbehavior or misconduct. Misbehavior or misconduct is defined as inappropriate or improper action that is not in conformity with the proper functioning or activities of the University. A penalty is a disciplinary measure imposed to instill in the student the understanding that any act of misbehavior/misconduct, willful violation and/or defiance of lawful rules and regulations has no place in a Christian University.

Specifically, penalties are intended to inculcate in the students the ideals of justice, to have a healthy respect for rules and authority, rectify unacceptable behavior, help strengthen the character of the students, and protect the good name and reputation, both of the students and of the University. The sanction/s that the University will impose depends on the degree/intensity of the offense/s to be determined and decided on by the University.

Disciplinary Action

Sanctions/penalties imposed shall range from:

1. Warning – notice is served either in verbal or written form.
2. Censure – official written reprimand for specified Misbehavior/ Misconduct.
3. Disciplinary Probation – exclusion from extra-curricular University activities for a specified period of time other than the right to follow the course of instruction and exams.
4. Restitution – payment for damage/s to or misappropriation of property.
5. Fine - The amount of fine depends on the intensity/degree of the offense that will be determined and decided by the Disciplinary Board.
6. Withdrawal/Suspension – A student is prohibited from attending classes or taking for a definite period of time.
7. Expulsion – termination of student status for an indefinite period.

Center for Teaching & Learning

Center For Teaching & Learning (CTL) Directorate collaborates with all faculties to ensure that curriculum innovation, evidence-based learning, meaningful learning assessment, and educational technology integration are fulfilled to support teaching and learning process at UPH. This improvement of teaching and learning quality is believed to continuously promote student success.

In UPH, we apply M-Flex learning. M-Flex learning or multi flexible learning is a learning method which enables students to learn flexibly and independently, starting from how to manage learning time, doing interactive activity, until reflecting on students own learning progress which eventually can provide a better learning experience for students.

To support students in the teaching and learning process, UPH students can access these following sites:

1. UPH learning management system or known as Moodle UPH, accessible through https://learn.uph.edu. This site provides various learning materials, courses, and assessments for students. Students can login using UPH Microsoft 365 account via OpenID connect menu (email icon on the login page).
2. UPH Video Platform or known as Panopto, accessible through https://uph.ap.panopto.com.This site provides various videos that can be accessed by students via Learn UPH course or Learn UPH user account.
3. CTL site, accessible through https://ctl.uph.edu. This site provides information that can support students in their teaching and learning experience, such as learning strategies and tutorials for utilizing educational technology tools in UPH.
4. CTL social media, accessible through Instagram with account @ctl.uph. Students can find recent updates about learning tips, educational technology updates, trainings, and various information related to teaching and learning at UPH.
